

BUSINESS MANAGEMENT (BMGT)

BMGT-256 Problem Solving/Team Dynamics

3 Credits

Lecture: 3 hours per week

Offering: Spring Only, All Years

This course explores the creation of teams and their utilization to solve problems. Team dynamics and strategies, brainstorming, information gathering methods, interpersonal communication, interdependence, and synergy are examined. Prior completion of other courses is not required.

BMGT-260 Human Resource Management

3 Credits

Lecture: 3 hours per week

Offering: Fall and Spring Only, All Years

This course is an introduction to human resource management. It is designed to give students an overview of the challenges faced by an organization in using employees in a legal and ethical manner. Emphasis will be placed on the legal issues and ethical dilemmas faced by business on a daily basis. This course will be useful to any students contemplating a career in business, as well as others who are interested in managing human resources.