

ENGLISH (AA)

Associate of Arts

Transfer Program

Interest Areas:

Arts, Comm. and Humanities

The study of literature and composition helps students to acquire valuable interdisciplinary communication skills for a wide range of professions. Classes focus on the pleasures and challenges of reading and writing. Students learn to read critically, to think logically, to analyze and organize a wide variety of concepts, to research and evaluate sources, and to communicate clearly and effectively. Studying literature, creative writing, and professional writing provides students with strong reading comprehension abilities and inspires cultural, social, philosophical, and historical inquiry. Regular practice of writing teaches students to express their ideas artfully and to integrate diverse perspectives into convincing essays. English majors can apply these skills to a range of professional fields, such as business, advertising, media, law, health professions, and education.

Completion of the following courses normally fulfills the first half of bachelor's degree requirements in English. Students can choose a special focus in literature, creative writing, or professional writing. Students who wish to choose a special focus for their English A.A. (literature, creative writing, or professional writing) must meet with their English advisors to discuss specific course recommendations. Course selections should be tailored to match requirements of the intended transfer institutions.

Program Outcomes

Upon completion of the program, students will be able to:

- Recognize and describe literary works within problems and patterns of the human experience.
- Distinguish, demonstrate competency, and apply terminologies, methodologies, processes, epistemologies, and traditions specific to the literary, creative writing, and/or professional writing.
- Analyze, evaluate, and interpret tests, objects, events, or ideas in their cultural, intellectual, linguistic, or historical contexts.
- Develop critical perspectives or arguments about the subject matter, grounded in evidence-based analysis.

- Demonstrate self-reflection, intellectual elasticity, widened perspective, and respect for diverse viewpoints.

In addition to the program outcomes, students will meet the North Idaho College General Education (GEM) Requirements.
